GOVERNMENT CONTRACTS RESEARCH

I. Starting Points................................................................................................................................. 1
   A. Government Contract Guidebook ................................................................................................. 1
   B. Government Contracts Reporter .................................................................................................. 1
   C. Government Contracts Under the Federal Acquisition Regulation ............................................. 2
   D. Government Contracts: Cyclopedic Guide to Law, Administration, Procedure ......................... 2
   F. Acronyms and Abbreviations in Government Contracting .......................................................... 2
   G. DAU Glossary of Defense Acquisition Acronyms and Terms ..................................................... 2

II. Statutes .................................................................................................................................................. 2
   A. Major Statutes ................................................................................................................................. 2
   B. United States Code (U.S.C.) .......................................................................................................... 3

III. Legislative History ............................................................................................................................. 3
   1. United States Government Accountability Office Federal Legislative Histories........................... 3
   2. ProQuest Congressional & ProQuest Legislative Insight ............................................................... 4

IV. Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR) ............................................................................................. 4
   A. Sources for the Current FAR .......................................................................................................... 4
      1. Print ............................................................................................................................................... 4
      2. Online ........................................................................................................................................... 4
   B. Sources for FAR Supplements ....................................................................................................... 4
      1. Code of Federal Regulations, Title 48 ......................................................................................... 4
      2. Department of Defense FAR Supplement (DFARS) .................................................................. 5
   C. Sources for Proposed or Final Regulations Amending the FAR ................................................... 5
      1. Federal Acquisition Circulars (FACs) ......................................................................................... 5
      2. Federal Register ............................................................................................................................ 5
   D. Sources for Superseded FARs and pre-FAR Regulations .............................................................. 5
      1. Superseded FARs .......................................................................................................................... 6
      2. Other Superseded Procurement Regulations ............................................................................. 6
   E. FAR Cross Reference Indexes ......................................................................................................... 6

V. Federal Court & Agency Decisions ..................................................................................................... 7
   A. Specialized Federal Court Reporters ............................................................................................. 7
      1. Federal Claims Reporter (Fed. Cl.) ............................................................................................... 7
      2. United States Claims Court Reporter (Cl. Ct.) ............................................................................ 7
      3. Court of Claims Reports (Ct. Cl.) and United States Court of Claims Reports (Ct. Cl.) .......... 7
      4. Contract Cases Federal (CCF) ..................................................................................................... 7
5. Federal Court Procurement Decisions (FPD) ................................................................. 8

B. Administrative Tribunals ................................................................................................. 8
   1. Decisions of the Comptroller General of the United States ....................................... 8
   2. Comptroller General’s Procurement Decisions (CPD) ............................................... 8
   3. Boards of Contract Appeals Decisions (BCA) ........................................................... 8

VI. Citators ............................................................................................................................ 8

VII. Selected Treatises & Reference Works ........................................................................ 9

VIII. Newsletters & Journals .............................................................................................. 10
   A. Newsletters .................................................................................................................. 10
      1. Westlaw Journal Government Contract .................................................................... 10
      2. Bloomberg BNA Federal Contracts Report ............................................................. 10
      3. The Government Contractor ................................................................................ 10
      4. The Nash & Cibinic Report ................................................................................... 10
      5. The Procurement Lawyer .................................................................................... 10
   B. Journals ....................................................................................................................... 11
      1. Briefing Papers ....................................................................................................... 11
      2. Federal Circuit Bar Journal ................................................................................... 11
      4. Journal of Public Procurement ............................................................................ 11
      5. Public Contract Law Journal .............................................................................. 11
      6. Public Procurement Law Review ......................................................................... 12

IX. Current Awareness Resources ....................................................................................... 12
    1. Cheetah (Wolters Kluwer) - News & Blogs ............................................................ 12
    2. Law360 ..................................................................................................................... 12
    3. Federal Contracting News Stream ........................................................................ 12

X. Selected Government Websites ....................................................................................... 12
Introduction

This guide provides an introduction to research in federal government contracts law. It will identify print and online sources of statutory law, administrative law, case law, and secondary materials.

The law of federal government contracts developed as a means for contractors to redress grievances based upon the award, performance, or non-performance of their contracts with the government. As a sovereign, the United States government can be sued only with its permission. The terms of this permission are set forth in the amalgamation of executive orders, statutes, policies, regulations, court, and administrative tribunal decisions that is collectively known as government contracts or public procurement law.

As a highly specialized area of law, government contracts can seem intimidating, overwhelming, and confusing. Contributing to the confusion is the “language” of government contracts that includes not only acronyms and abbreviations, but also special meanings given to ordinary words and phrases. “Public procurement,” “government procurement,” and “public contracts” are other terms used to refer to the field.

The basic techniques for researching federal statutes, regulations, and court decisions also apply to government contracts law. For additional information, please see the following research guides available from the Law Library’s website: Government Contracts Resources, Federal Regulations, Federal Statutory Law Resources, Presidential Documents, and Case Law Resources.

Locating Sources

To determine if a source listed in this guide is available in Bloomberg Law, Lexis, or Westlaw, enter the name of the source in the search box at the top of the page and then select the source from the drop-down list.

To obtain Bloomberg Law, Lexis, or Westlaw credentials, email electronicservices@law.gwu.libanswers.com and include your GWid number.

To locate other databases, including Cheetah (Wolters Kluwer) and HeinOnline, see the GW Law A to Z Database List.

Sources

I. Starting Points

A. Government Contract Guidebook

The Guidebook provides a good, basic discussion of the principles and processes of federal government procurement.

Print: 1st Floor, Reserve, KF849.A85 (Feldman, 4th ed., Thomson Reuters)
Online: Westlaw

B. Government Contracts Reporter

This resource provides analysis, statutes, executive orders, federal appellate court and administrative decisions, regulations and other official documents relating to government contracts. The print is no longer updated (1962-1998), and has been superseded by the Cheetah (Wolters Kluwer) database.

Online: Cheetah (Wolters Kluwer)
C. Government Contracts Under the Federal Acquisition Regulation

Online: Westlaw

D. Government Contracts: Cyclopedic Guide to Law, Administration, Procedure

This work comprehensively covers all topics relating to government contracts. Citations to cases, statutes, and regulations are provided. It also contains statutes with annotations, forms, reference tables, and an index.

Online: Lexis

This is an excellent tool for understanding the language of procurement. This title provides definitions and references to other secondary sources.

Online: Cheetah (Wolters Kluwer)

F. Acronyms and Abbreviations in Government Contracting

This book explains abbreviations used in government contracts.

Online: Cheetah (Wolters Kluwer)

G. DAU Glossary of Defense Acquisition Acronyms and Terms

This resource includes acronyms, abbreviations, and terms commonly used in the weapon systems acquisition process within the Department of Defense and defense industries.

Online: DAU (Defense Acquisition University)

II. Statutes

A. Major Statutes

Listed below are some of the major statutes that affect government contracts law. Explanations and relevant public law numbers regarding these acts can be located in The Government Contracts Reference Book: A Comprehensive Guide to the Language of Procurement (Location: 1st Floor, Reserve, KF847.5.N37 2013).

- Armed Services Procurement Act of 1947 (ASPA), ch. 65, 62 Stat. 21
- Bayh-Dole Act, Pub. L. No. 96-517, 94 Stat. 3019
- Buy American Act, ch. 212, Title III, Secs. 1-3, 47 Stat. 1520
• Federal Property and Administrative Services Act of 1949, ch. 288, 63 Stat. 377
• Truth in Negotiations Act (TINA), Pub. L. No. 87-653, 76 Stat. 528
• Tucker Act, ch. 359, 24 Stat. 505

B. United States Code (U.S.C.)

The current version of laws governing federal government contracts are found in several titles of the United States Code, including Title 41. These laws can found in several sources.

Print:
United States Code (U.S.C.) (current ed.), 2nd Floor

Online:  govinfo (PDF, 1994 ed.-)
Bloomberg Law
Cheetah (Wolters Kluwer)
HeinOnline (PDF, 1925 ed.-)
Lexis
Westlaw

III. Legislative History

A legislative history is a collection of Congressional documents (bills, committee hearings, committee reports, and debates) produced during the period that a piece of legislation is considered by Congress. Analysis of the legislative history of a law may provide valuable insight into what Congress intended by a particular phrase or section of the act.

Legislative history documents are available from a variety of sources, depending upon the date of enactment of the law. For detailed information on locating legislative history documents, see the Federal Legislative History Resources guide.

Legislative history chronologies provide citations to the documents making up the legislative history of a law. Various legislative histories are available in print and can be located by searching JACOB using the name of the statute and the phrase “legislative history.” The following online resources also provide compiled legislative histories of government contracts laws.

1. United States Government Accountability Office Federal Legislative Histories

This resource contains legislative histories compiled by the U.S. GAO. It provides access to PDFs of congressional materials, hearings, and presidential documents.

Online:  Westlaw (PDF, selective 1921-1995)
2. ProQuest Congressional & ProQuest Legislative Insight

These two databases provide access to legislative history materials, including congressional reports, documents, prints, and hearings in PDF. They also include reports from the Congressional Research Service.

Online:
ProQuest Congressional
ProQuest Legislative Insight

IV. Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR)

The current system of regulations for government contracts is the Federal Acquisition Regulations System, which became effective on April 1, 1984. The primary document in the FAR System is the Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR), which applies to all federal executive agencies. Each agency can promulgate its own set of regulations, called supplements, which govern the procurement activities specific to that agency, but these supplements cannot restate or contradict the FAR. For example, the Defense FAR Supplement (DFARS) is issued by the Department of Defense, the National Aeronautics and Space Administration FAR Supplement (NFS) is issued by the National Aeronautics and Space Administration, and the Air Force FAR Supplement (AFFARS) is issued by the Air Force.

A. Sources for the Current FAR

1. Print
   - Code of Federal Regulations, Title 48, Chapter 1, 1st Floor, Reserve
   - Federal Acquisition Regulation as of ...: FAR, 1st Floor, Reserve, KF844.715.F43 (CCH)

2. Online
   - Acquisition.gov (current PDF)
   - govinfo (PDF, 1996-)
   - Bloomberg Law
   - Cheetah (Wolters Kluwer)
   - HeinOnline (PDF, 1984-)
   - Lexis (1984-)
   - Westlaw (1984-)

B. Sources for FAR Supplements

1. Code of Federal Regulations, Title 48

   Print:
   1st Floor, Reserve

   Online:
   govinfo (PDF, 1996-)
   Federal Acquisition Jumpstation
   Bloomberg Law
   Cheetah (Wolters Kluwer)
   HeinOnline (PDF, 1984-)
   Lexis (1984-)
   Westlaw (1984-)
2. Department of Defense FAR Supplement (DFARS)

Beginning with the 1998 edition, the DFARS is officially published in electronic format only on the Defense Pricing and Contracting website.

Print: 1st Floor, Reserve

Online: Defense Pricing and Contracting
govinfo (PDF, 1996-)
Bloomberg Law
Cheetah (Wolters Kluwer)
Lexis (1984-)
Westlaw (1984-)

C. Sources for Proposed or Final Regulations Amending the FAR

1. Federal Acquisition Circulars (FACs)

Federal Acquisitions Circulars (FACs) revised, amended, and updated the FAR. FACs were numbered sequentially and corresponded to the FAR edition they update. For example, FAC 90-3 would refer to the 1990 edition of the FAR and the third FAC released under that edition. FAC looseleafs have been discontinued with the beginning with the 2019 edition of the FAR. Use the List of Sections Affected instead.

Online: Acquisition.gov
Cheetah (Wolters Kluwer)

2. Federal Register

Print: 1st Floor, Reserve (current year)

Online: govinfo (PDF, 1984-)
Bloomberg Law (1984-)
HeinOnline (PDF, 1984-)
Lexis (1984-)
Westlaw (1984-)

D. Sources for Superseded FARs and pre-FAR Regulations

It may be necessary to research older, superseded procurement regulations. Prior to the FAR, federal government procurement was governed by various regulations. The superseded regulations listed below should be consulted when the matter in question occurred during a specific time period.

Although the Jacob Burns Law Library has some of these superseded regulations in print, the Code of Federal Regulations should generally be used to research historical procurement regulations. Pre-FAR defense regulations can be located in C.F.R. Title 32 and general federal agency regulations can be located in C.F.R. Title 41. It may also be necessary to search the Federal Register, since new regulations may have been added and superseded before the publication of the next C.F.R. For the most comprehensive coverage, search for these regulations in HeinOnline.

For additional guidance in locating defense related pre-FAR regulations, see the U.S. Defense Procurement Resources guide.
1. Superseded FARs

   Online:  Cheetah (Wolters Kluwer)

2. Other Superseded Procurement Regulations

   a. Defense

      Armed Services Procurement Regulations (ASPR)

   b. Civilian

      Federal Procurement Regulations (FPR)

      Print: Historic, LL2, KF844.714 .A2 1964 (General Services Administration, 1964 ed.)

   c. Other Relevant Regulations

      For other superseded regulations, check the appropriate C.F.R. and Federal Register resources.

E. FAR Cross Reference Indexes

   The following sources provide cross references from section numbers of superseded procurement regulations to the corresponding sections in the FAR and vice versa:

   - Cross Index: Defense Acquisition Regulation to Federal Acquisition Regulation (DAR-FAR)

   - Cross Index: Federal Acquisition Regulation to Defense Acquisition Regulation (FAR-DAR)

   - Cross Index: Federal Acquisition Regulation to Federal Procurement Regulations (FAR-FPR)

   - Cross Index: Federal Procurement Regulations to Federal Acquisition Regulation (FPR-FAR)

     Print: LL2, Historic, KF844.715.C764 1983 (General Services Administration, 1983)
V. Federal Court & Agency Decisions

In federal government contracts law, decisions are rendered by federal courts, mainly the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit and the U.S. Court of Federal Claims (previously the U.S. Court of Claims). In addition to the usual reporters for federal cases, such as U.S. Reports, Federal Reporter, etc., specialized reporters are available.

For more information on locating federal court decisions see the Case Law Resources guide.

A. Specialized Federal Court Reporters

1. Federal Claims Reporter (Fed. Cl.)

Contains decisions of the U.S. Court of Federal Claims, U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit, and U.S. Supreme Court.

Online: Bloomberg Law
Lexis
Westlaw

2. United States Claims Court Reporter (Cl. Ct.)

Contains decisions of the U.S. Claims Court, U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit, and the U.S. Supreme Court.

Online: Lexis
Westlaw

3. Court of Claims Reports (Ct. Cl.) and United States Court of Claims Reports (Ct. Cl.)

Covers cases decided in the U.S. Court of Claims.

Online: Bloomberg Law
HeinOnline (PDF, 1863-1982)
Lexis
Westlaw

4. Contract Cases Federal (CCF)

Decisions from U.S. courts of appeals, claims courts, and district courts.

Print: LL2, Historic, KF846.5.G676 (1942-1998)

5. Federal Court Procurement Decisions (FPD)

Contains decisions from U.S. courts of appeals and claims courts.

B. Administrative Tribunals

Administrative tribunals that deal with government contracts have decision making authority to resolve bid protests or disputes that concern a government agency. The GAO (Comptroller General) hears bid protests (objection to solicitation or award), while the Boards of Contract Appeals hears disputes (issues arising under a contract).

1. Decisions of the Comptroller General of the United States

Online: Government Accountability Office (selective PDF, 1894-)
Cheetah (Wolters Kluwer) (1986-)
HeinOnline (PDF, 1921-1994)
Lexis (1921-)
Westlaw (1921-)

2. Comptroller General’s Procurement Decisions (CPD)

Print: SL3, KF846.A2 U54 (1958-)
Online: Westlaw (1921-)

On January 6, 2007, all individual civilian agency boards were merged to form the Civilian Board of Contract Appeals.

Print: SL3, KF853.3.A2 A7 (CCH, 1956-2009)
Online: Armed Services Board of Contract Appeals
Civilian Board of Contract Appeals
Cheetah (Wolters Kluwer) (1956-)
Lexis
Westlaw

VI. Citators

Government contracts cases, statutes, and regulations may be Shepardized on Lexis or KeyCited on Westlaw. Citing references in both Shepard’s and KeyCite include cases and law journal articles. The Government Contracts Citator can be used to update court decisions, decisions of the Comptroller General, and Boards of Contract Appeals.

Print: SL3, KF841 .A575 G68 (West Group, 1958-)
Online: Westlaw
VII. Selected Treatises & Reference Works

The following titles provide in-depth analysis of different areas of government contracts law. Additional materials can be located by searching JACOB, the Library’s catalog.

- Civil False Claims and Qui Tam Actions
  Online: Cheetah (Wolters Kluwer) (Boese, 4th ed., CCH 2010- )
  Westlaw

- Administration of Government Contracts
  Online: Cheetah (Wolters Kluwer)

- Cost-Reimbursement Contracting
  Online: Cheetah (Wolters Kluwer)

- Formation of Government Contracts
  Online: Cheetah (Wolters Kluwer)

- Government Contracts in a Nutshell

- Government Contract Law: The Deskbook for Procurement Professionals

- Government Contract Costs and Pricing
  Online: Westlaw

- Government Contract Disputes
  Print: 1st Floor, Reserve, KF849.G583 2010 (McKenna, Long & Aldridge LLP & Kienlen, West 2010).
  Online: Westlaw

- Competitive Negotiation: The Source Selection Process
  Online: Cheetah (Wolters Kluwer)

- Government Contract Changes
  Online: Westlaw

- Accounting for Government Contracts: Cost Accounting Standards
  Online: Lexis Advance (Sanders, Matthew Bender)
VIII. Newsletters & Journals

Listed below are some major newsletters and journals published in the area of federal government contracts law. Newsletters provide current information on cases, legislation, and regulations. Journals generally contain articles that provide in-depth analysis of procurement law issues.

A. Newsletters

1. Westlaw Journal Government Contract

   Biweekly publication that reports on ongoing procurement litigation and reproduces associated documents.

   Print: 1st Floor, Reserve & SL3, KF851.A3 D44
   Online: Westlaw (1996-)

2. Bloomberg BNA Federal Contracts Report

   Newsletter covering developments in government contracts law that ceased publication in August 2018. Currently available as a news stream on Bloomberg Law.

   Online: Bloomberg Law (Federal Contracts Report) or Bloomberg Law (News Stream)

3. The Government Contractor

   A weekly newsletter focusing on the legal developments in federal procurement such as legislation, cases/decisions, and rules/regulations.

   Print: 1st Floor, Reserve & SL3, KF844.73.G68
   Online: Westlaw (1992-)

4. The Nash & Cibinic Report

   A monthly periodical that provides analysis of government contracts topics by Professor Ralph Nash and Vernon J. Edwards.

   Print: 1st Floor, Reserve & SL3, KF849.N37
   Online: Westlaw (1987-)

5. The Procurement Lawyer

   ABA quarterly newsletter on current developments in federal, state, and local government procurement.

   Online: HeinOnline (PDF, 1965-)
   Westlaw (selected 1998-)
B. Journals

1. Briefing Papers

Monthly journal of in-depth articles on government contracts law. Includes a topical index and “Year in Review” supplement that discusses significant changes in government contracts law from the preceding year.

Print: 1st Floor, Reserve & SL3, KF842.B74 (1986-)

Online: Westlaw (1992-)

2. Federal Circuit Bar Journal

A quarterly review of the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit.

Print: 1st Floor, Reserve & LL2, K6.E34

Online: Westlaw (selected, 1991-)
HeinOnline (PDF, 1991-)
Lexis (2001-)

Published annually by the National Contract Management Association.

Print: 1st Floor, Reserve & SL3, KF842.C67

4. Journal of Public Procurement

Scholarly journal that covers topics such as procurement policy, contract management, procurement methods and techniques, and performance evaluation.

Online: Emerald (PDF, 2001-)
ABI/INFORM Complete Plus (PDF, 2001-2014)

5. Public Contract Law Journal

Scholarly journal published quarterly by the ABA, in cooperation with The George Washington University Law School.

Print: 1st Floor, Reserve & LL2, K16.U25

Online: HeinOnline (PDF, 1967-)
Lexis (1995-)
Westlaw (selected 1982-)
6. Public Procurement Law Review

Bimonthly publication that focuses on public procurement in Europe and serves as a forum for debate on procurement law and practice.

Print: 1st Floor, Reserve & LL2, K16.U2743 (1992-)
Online: Westlaw (selected 1992-)

IX. Current Awareness Resources

1. Cheetah (Wolters Kluwer) - News & Blogs
   Online: Cheetah (Wolters Kluwer)

2. Law360
   Online: Law360

3. Federal Contracting News Stream
   Online: Bloomberg Law

X. Selected Government Websites

- Acquisition.gov
  Maintained by the GSA, this site contains links to the current FAR, FAR archives, and supplemental regulations.

- Defense Pricing and Contracting
  The official online source for the Defense FAR Supplement (DFARS).

- Federal Acquisition Jumpstation
  Site that links to various federal agencies' procurement websites.

- FAPIIS
  The Federal Awardee Performance and Integrity Information System provides information on contractor/grantee debarments and suspensions, in addition to administrative proceedings.

- Federal Procurement Data System
  Provides information on all contracts with estimated values over $10,000. Supplies information to USAspending.gov regarding procurement data.

- Regulations.gov
  Federal website that contains information and documents related to the creation of federal regulations. Also contains submitted comments on proposed rules.

- USAspending.gov
  Site that provides spending data for the federal government. Contains entity information, amount of the award, and location.

Jacob Burns Law Library, Revised by Mary Kate Hunter, August 2019