LIBRARY LOCKER RULES & REGISTRATION FORM

The following rules apply to all law library lockers. Person violating these rules will lose their locker privileges.

- Lockers are available to LLM & SJD students. A $10.00 cash deposit is required. The deposit will be refunded when the key is returned to BM01, the Library Administrative Office.

- Locker privileges are granted only while a student is enrolled in courses in the Law School.

- Lockers are subject to inspection by library personnel at any time. All library materials used in a locker must be checked out at the Circulation Desk. Library material that is not properly checked out will be removed from the locker.

- Do not leave food and drink in lockers.

- The grids covering lockers must not be obstructed.

- Assignment of a locker does not guarantee that the work area connected to it will be available. The library staff will not ask other patrons to move to accommodate those with lockers assigned to them.

- The George Washington University assumes no responsibility for loss of or damage to any personal items left in lockers.

I have read these rules and agree to abide by them. If I do not, I understand that locker privileges will be revoked for the remainder of the semester and that I must return the locker key immediately.
